

Station 8 – Main Street

After its expansion of the city fortification in 16th century the main street became one of the busiest thoroughfares. Nowadays, the half-timbered houses from 18th century are the most photographed subject of our city, together with the castle Nanstein above.