

The coat of arms of the County of Nassau-Siegen is a shield divided into three quarters. The top left quarter features a rainbow. The top right quarter features a green oak branch with three yellow acorns. The bottom half of the shield is black and contains five white circles arranged in a cross pattern.

